

The Third Sunday after Pentecost Worship Service

Prelude

Planxty George Brabazon

Turlough O'Carolan

Opening Hymn 537 (vs.1-3) "Christ for the world we sing"

Christ for the world we sing!

*The world to Christ we bring with loving zeal;
the poor, and them that mourn, the faint and overborne, sin-sick and sorrow-worn, whom Christ doth heal.*

Christ for the world we sing!

*The world to Christ we bring with fervent prayer;
the wayward and the lost, by restless passions tossed,
redeemed at countless cost from dark despair.*

Christ for the world we sing!

*The world to Christ we bring with one accord;
with us the work to share, with us reproach to dare,
with us the cross to bear, for Christ our Lord.*

The Word of God

The people standing, the Celebrant says

Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

People and blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant may say

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

All sing.

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,

Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

O Lord, make us have perpetual love and reverence for your holy Name, for you never fail to help and govern those whom you have set upon the sure foundation of your loving-kindness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the book of Genesis 21:8-21

The child grew and was weaned; and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac. So she said to Abraham, "Cast out this slave woman with her son; for the son of this slave woman shall not inherit along with my son Isaac." The matter was very distressing to Abraham on account of his son. But God said to Abraham, "Do not be distressed because of the boy and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for it is through Isaac that offspring shall be named for you. As for the son of the slave woman, I will make a nation of him also, because he is your offspring." So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes. Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, "Do not let me look on the death of the child." And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept. And God heard the voice of the boy; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said to her, "What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid; for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. Come, lift up the boy and hold him fast with your hand, for I will make a great nation of him." Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. She went, and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink.

God was with the boy, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness, and became an expert with the bow. He lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Psalm 86:1-10, 16-17

- 1 Bow down your ear, O LORD, and answer me, *
for I am poor and in misery.
- 2 Keep watch over my life, for I am faithful; *
save your servant who puts his trust in you.
- 3 Be merciful to me, O LORD, for you are my God; *
I call upon you all the day long.
- 4 Gladden the soul of your servant, *
for to you, O LORD, I lift up my soul.

- 5 For you, O LORD, are good and forgiving, * and great is your love toward all who call upon you.
- 6 Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer, *
and attend to the voice of my supplications.
- 7 In the time of my trouble I will call upon you, *
for you will answer me.
- 8 Among the gods there is none like you, O LORD, *
nor anything like your works.
- 9 All nations you have made will come and worship you, O LORD, *
and glorify your Name.
- 10 For you are great;
you do wondrous things; *
and you alone are God.
- 16 Turn to me and have mercy upon me; *
give your strength to your servant;
and save the child of your handmaid.
- 17 Show me a sign of your favor,
so that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed; *
because you, O LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Romans 6:1b-11

Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

The Gospel: Matthew 10:24-39

Deacon or Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the twelve disciples, "A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

“So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

“Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.

For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.

Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.”

Deacon/Priest The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Announcements

Prayers of the People

We pray for the Church, for St. Patrick’s and our leadership, our bishop and clergy, and for all churches everywhere.

Bring us to unity, O Lord.

We pray for our nation, for all in leadership. We pray for safety, peace, civility in our public discourse, and for all to have the freedom needed for the pursuit of happiness.

Unify our nation, O Lord.

We pray for our world, for peace and freedom; that we may appreciate our differences rather than feel threatened by them; that all people may live in safety and be treated as equals in the eyes of God.

Bring unity to our broken world, O Lord.

We pray for our local community and all those in our neighborhood, the homeless and those who suffer, especially from addiction. We give thanks for the helpers, especially our teachers, firefighters, police and public servants.

Bring together our neighborhoods, O Lord.

We pray for those in trouble, for those who suffer with illness, for the sad, the lonely and the anxious, for the poor and the homeless, and for all who have been wounded by war, whether their wounds are seen or not.

Unite us in care for our world, O Lord.

We pray for those who have died, especially those who died young, or suddenly and unprepared. We pray for those who grieve and are affected by loss.

Join us together as your saints now and in the age to come.

We pray for those related to our parish who are on the front line of our hospitals and care facilities...

We pray for those who have requested our prayers, for

We pray for those celebrating birthdays . . . and those celebrating anniversaries...

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

Confession

Deacon or Priest

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Officiant and People, together, all kneeling

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbor as ourselves, we are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

Peace

Hymn 370 verse 6 “St. Patrick’s Breastplate”

*Christ be with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort and restore me,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love me, Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.*

The Lord’s Prayer

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

General Thanksgiving

Officiant and People

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made. We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

Blessing

Closing Hymn 675 (vs. 1-4) “Take up your cross, the Savior said”

*Take up your cross, the Savior said, if you would my disciple be;
take up your cross with willing heart, and humbly follow after me.*

*Take up your cross, let not its weight fill your weak spirit with alarm;
his strength shall bear your spirit up, and brace your heart, and nerve your arm.*

*Take up your cross, heed not the shame, and let your foolish heart be still;
the Lord for you accepted death upon a cross, on Calvary’s hill.*

*Take up your cross, then, in his strength, and calmly every danger brave:
it guides you to abundant life and leads to victory o’er the grave.*

Arts Camp: A Virtual Bible School Experience is now OPEN!

Arts Camp is a creative, thoughtful, scripture-based, joy-filled program! Campers will engage in music and song, visual art & media, movement/drama, story, and game playing to enter into the Bible themes of Praise, EcoJustice, the Call to Love our Neighbor, Interfaith Spirituality, and Saints & Holy Helpers. Designed for VBS at-home, our goal is to provide an option that is adaptable to your needs, simple to explain, and easy to execute with access to online videos. We will mail you the supplemental materials you will need to complete daily activities. Videos will be available July 13-31. Register today using this link or on Realm. VBS Registration. *Fees cover cost of supplies and postage.

Happy Father's Day! While you're out for a Sunday Drive, all men of St. Patrick's are invited to stop by the church from 12:30-1:30pm today to visit our Pop Stand stocked with Ice-Cold Coca-Cola. "You are one cool Pop!"

The Sunday Sacred Circles group is beginning discussion on Rachel Held Evans' Inspired: Slaying Giants, Walking on Water, and Loving the Bible Again. As always, all women of St. Patrick's are invited to join us between 11 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. on Sundays via Zoom. Please contact Kim Nelson at kimberly.j.nelson@gmail.com for the Zoom meeting

Education

Children's Chapel- Mother Cameron is emailing lesson plans for families to use at home. If you are not receiving this material and would like to, have any questions, or desire additional resources, you can contact her at 614-766-2664 or assistant@pats-dublin.org.

EYC Sunday Nights for Youth in grades 6-12 meet from 6:30-7:30pm via Zoom. We will continue to meet weekly during the summer months with the exception of the weekend of July 4. If you are not receiving the weekly Zoom invite, contact Mother Cameron at 614-766-2664 or assistant@pats-dublin.org.

Adult Formation this summer is inspired by WiredWord, an adult education program that connects our faith and our theology with the headlines of the day. Each week the Clergy discuss the issues at hand and offer questions for you to ponder. New videos are posted to our YouTube channel each Sunday by 11am. https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC6TwG_98itmzX9J1HzCSDEQ
